"This channeled healing modality has a purity of energy associated with it. I have found that the energy level this modality operates at is of an extremely high frequency and I personally have experienced profound shifts within my physical body both during and after a treatment session. It's a system that can be greatly beneficial to people who are evolving and on their spiritual path who are looking for ways to support and enhance their journey. This energy would greatly benefit healers and those already involved with other healing modalities as it helps to raise a person's vibrational level or frequency to a higher, finer frequency."

Lucy Lyne; Principal of 'The Chiron College of Astrology and Healing'

Module 1 is a 2 day workshop and covers the following;

Symbols

The symbols in this module are easy to learn and use. They cover a variety of avenues all leading to perfecting balance and alignment within both the physical body and the outer energetic bodies.

Healing Symbols

The channeled healing symbols are easy to use and learn, they access a high vibration, taking the healing vibration to a deep level with their use focused on healing specific aspects of the being.

Breathing Techniques

The breathing techniques outlined are easy to use and implement on a daily basis, providing easy access to universal life force energy.

Energy Enhancement Exercises

These exercises use the techniques of visualization and energy 'drawing'. They allow the person to draw in and integrate more light into their physical body for an outcome of enhanced energy and vitality.

Planetary Aligning Techniques

These specific methods outline ways to align the being to individual planetary vibrations. They involve no prior knowledge of the planets or their astrological meanings.

Treatment Sessions

The treatment sessions in Module 1 are focused on release, opening up the energy channels, light integration and enhancing the energy of the body. They also include special and easy planet focus layout methods.

Crystals for Module 1

Crystals are used extensively in this new healing modality. It is well known that crystals have an innate healing/enhancing quality. Their use within this new healing modality heightens the universal energetic flow. A crystal kit is included in the cost of the course.

Feedback from previous Module 1 course participants;

“Thanks for a great two days, it has been really wonderful, and I don’t think I have ever enjoyed a course so much. It was nice to already know and feel comfortable with everyone involved. That definitely made it a more relaxed atmosphere to begin with. Those last two sessions of the day in particular were really quite amazing, first the releasing one and then the last one, I had angels all around me, and they were singing and whispering about love.” Merlene

“Well what a fantastic 2 days it was, I just left on an absolute high. What an incredible person you are to have channeled all of that material, it is really mind-boggling!” Sheridan

“Thanks for a truly remarkable weekend. The energy of ACSS is wonderful to work with. I am feeling really fantastic compared with when I started the course. I feel balanced and not overwhelmed (like I have any other time I have done a course)” Lucy

“Ahead of your time, you are!!! As people are starting to become more in tune to the new energy around at the moment they are being led to find places where the light is strongest and your work is one of those places! Plus it is going to be far more effective for people who are conscious of this new awareness.” Michele

Feedback from Module 1 reviewer;

“Thanks Bren, it was a great 2 days. I can't believe how quickly the time goes when you are doing the healing work or receiving it. It was really good to refresh and come back to it again and realize how amazingly powerful it really is. I actually did a healing the next day on a friend of mine who does body work for people and she messaged me today to tell me how powerfully it had affected her. So that was good feedback.” Sheridan

Feedback from a client of Nicola Rule (ACSS AA HT – certified instructor);

*"Today I had my first Ascension Healing from Nic. I struggle to find words for the experience - so much of what happened does not fit into a two-dimensional sentence - it really needs to be felt to be understood. Even though I knew with my intellect that only Nic was in the room, my spirit was aware that the room was full of helpful and special beings who were working by her side. I felt as if I was being 'tuned' - like an old, neglected piano being brought back into harmony. During the healing I felt deeply, deeply calm and yet still very aware of the changes occurring in all parts of my being. I know that this healing will continue long after today and I feel that it adds another huge dimension to the amazing bodywork that Nic does. Thank you."

Ascension Acceleration Healing Therapy

This unique healing therapy utilizes a very high frequency of healing energy for clearing, balancing and aligning the subtle and physical bodies which are all done through pure transmission of these higher level frequencies. This energy elevates and aligns you through your Higher Self to Source. This transmission of energy is interactive and in conjunction with their Higher Self, 'The Angels of Light', 'The Brotherhood of Light' and 'The Galactic Federation'.

This advanced healing modality uses innovational and pure vibrational techniques when accessing the energetic field of the client which, and with most treatments given, negates the need to rely upon physical touch for the transfer of energy. The healing and enhancing energy of various crystals is also employed.

The benefits work exponentially, each treatment building upon the previous one. Higher dimensional energies are accessed and these then permeate and create an intensely calming, healing experience. Flow is re-established, blockages may be released (from a cellular level as well as etherically), and alignments occur between the subtle / physical bodies, the Higher Self and the God-Self.

The healer acts as a facilitator creating a powerful and sacred 'Healing Chamber of Light' to hold and deliver the very high vibrational frequencies which ultimately enhance and shift the client towards expanded Light, Healing and Consciousness. These frequency shifts occur effortlessly through channels of heightened states of consciousness and coordinated through inner intuitive guidance. The client may feel uplifted and go into an altered state of consciousness - the state between being awake and dreaming.

The more you experience these higher energetic vibrational frequencies, the more this Light energy will stabilise within your energy fields thus enabling you to hold more Light within your physical and subtle bodies. The experience of this energy varies from person to person and also treatment to treatment. This energy can't really be described - it has to be experienced.
